Playing Above Age Division

Younger players may play up one year with WRITTEN PARENTAL CONSENT/REQUEST, local club approval and in accordance with STYSA team formation rules. Each coach and player should be absolutely sure the player is really ready both physically and emotionally to play with other players as much as two years his/her senior. Any player who has to play up more than one year because of problems with local club team formation must have WRITTEN PARENTAL CONSENT/REQUEST and local club approval.

I/We, the parent/guardian of the above stated player, understand that this request may be granted or denied by the local club and will accept and abide by the club's decision. Consent to play above a player's age division shall expire at the end of each seasonal year and must be resubmitted for consideration each new seasonal year. The following criteria must be met before a play-up request can be granted:
